
Measuring arm separation: two Gaussians fitted to the intensity profile measured intensity (line-scan data)
fitted model =
sum of the two curves σ each sister chromatid
= one bell curve (Gaussian)
background
μ1 μ2
arm separation = μ2 − μ1
Fluorescence intensity (gray value)
Distance along the line (pixels)
0
10
20
30
40
50
60
0
10
20
30
40